Following is the CSE response confirming that the -047 and -048 forward exhaust ducts appear on production drawing 76308-77000, and are eligible for installation on post CSN 76-262 aircraft.

Case Number: C0102925
Customer: Thai Aviation Services Limited
Aircraft S/N: 761000
Aircraft Model: S-76D
ATA: 78
Part Number: 76308-77003-047 / -048
Case Subject: Forward Exhaust Duct-Request For P/N Applicability Confirmation

Problem Description:

Reference

- 1) S-76D IPC CH 78-10-01
- 2) T-Rev 78-07

The S-76 D IPC Numerical Index lists forward exhaust duct P/Ns 76308-77003-047 and -048.

IPC T-Rev 78-07 does not list the -047 and -048 ducts.

TAS has recently received -047 and -048 ducts from SCI but is unable to confirm from IPC data that they are eligible for installation on their A/C. They believe that T-Rev 78-07 is in error.

TAS request confirmation that forward exhaust ducts P/N 76308-77003-047 and -048 are still eligible for installation on A/C that have complied with CSN 76-262. EoM

Problem Resolution:

Sikorsky Engineering states that P/N 76308-77003-047/048, are the new P/N's that tree into P/N 76308-77000-013/-014, which shows the CSN 76-262 incorporated.

Subject: EXTERNAL: S76D Exhaust Duct Part Numbers 047/048

Hi Dave

As discussed, TAS would like to request an FTR clarification on the effectivity of part number 76308-77003-047 and -048 Fwd Exhaust Ducts. The number still exists in the S76D IPC Numerical Index but has been removed, presumably accidentally, by Trev 78-07. The -047/048 ducts are production ducts with CSN 76-262 incorporated. TAS orders the 047/048 but question as to being able to install them as they are not in the IPC have arisen. Sound Off GrRo180729-2226 has been submitted. Thank you.
